

England Dry Ski Slope Squad - 2004/2005

Selections will be taking place for the England Dry Ski Slope Squad at the All England's, Swadlincote, Sept 4th 2004.

The nature of the England Dry Ski Slope Squad will be to represent England at Dry Ski Slope Dual Slalom events, therefore availability at some of the races where team events are held is a requirement of joining the squad: ie: British Championships, Hillend, Welsh Championships, Llandudno, Irish Championships & European Championships, Kiltarnan, Ireland. Please indicate on your application form which events you hope to be able to attend. Approximately 30 athletes will be selected (20 males/10 females) and it is likely there will be Squad Training days available for the selected athletes.

Process

The England Dry Ski Slope Squad Selection Committee will assess every applicant and make selections according to the criteria details below. Selection is dependent on all of the following criteria:

1. Seed Points: -
Male Seed Points: 50 points and under
Female Seed Points: 30 points and under
2. Commitment: - Commitment to training and competition - available to compete at Championships
3. Technical Skills Assessment
Technical Skills Assessment will take place after the All England Championships, Swadlincote 4th September 2004.
4. Athletes must be registered with Snowsport England
